Bea Bauer, l., Barbara Walsh, center, and Mary Ann Burke student Avila Medal recipients, 1971, with Dean of Students Sister Marie Layala.

BERNARD DICKENS

GERALD ELLIOT

HOWARD KAYE

SIX APPOINTMENTS

At the quarterly meeting of Avila's Board of Councilors early this month, Chairman Helm Lillis welcomed 6 new members to that organization: Bernard Dickens, executive director of St. Joseph hospital; Gerald T. Elliot, attorney; Howard Kaye, associate manager of E. F. Hutton Company; John J. Kitchin, attorney; Mary Jo McCann, partner in Touche Ross accounting firm, and Jerry T. Powell, attorney.

Board members, new and old, addressed themselves to some of Avila's crucial concerns, including the funding of a new nursing education center to house the expanding department of Nursing, the development of further programs to accomodate students from lower socio-economic backgrounds, and the initiation in early fall of the Harry S. Truman distinguished lecturer series.

Faculty Avila medal recipients: Sister Marie Georgette, Sister Margaret Jahn, and Sister Ann-Dominic at hanars convacation with Sister Olive Louise and Dean Richard Scott.
